

Kohl: a Journal for Body and Gender Research

“Anticolonial Feminist Imaginaries”

Vol. 9, No. 1, Winter 2023

A special issue guest-edited by Alina Sajed and Sara Salem

Acknowledgments

This issue emerged out of ongoing conversations around feminism, archiving, and anticolonialism. We are deeply appreciative to everyone who contributed writing, ideas and work towards this special issue.

We want to thank our contributors for attending an early virtual workshop in February last year to share initial ideas and plans in what turned out to be an inspiring day that brought to life the nature of collective thinking and dreaming.

We would like to especially thank Asad Faulwell for giving us permission to use their stunning artwork for our issue.

We would like to thank Maya Zebdawi, Sabah Ayoub, and Zuhour Mahmoud from the Kohl team for their incredible work on the special issue. This issue would not have been possible without the extraordinary work, love, and support we have received from Ghiwa Sayegh, editor in chief at Kohl, who enthusiastically took on the project and provided the utmost care and attention throughout the process. Thank you, Ghiwa!

We are indebted to the tireless work of our team of translators Adham Selim, Ahmad Hamdan, Amal Shaheen, Dima Hamadeh, Lina Yehya, Marina Samir, Mohammad El Khansa, Nidal Majid, Riad El Ayoubi, and Sylvana El Khoury, who made the Arabic version of Kohl possible and generously accommodated our tight deadlines.

We would like to thank our reviewers for their invaluable work: Bojana Videkanic, Dalia Mostafa, Lisa Tilley, Nabila Munawar, Quỳnh N. Phạm, Sam Opondo, Sorcha Thomson, Timothy Seidel, and Zubairu Wai.

We cannot thank Layal Khatib, our web developer, enough. Her work has been crucial to this issue's digital presence.
